The Senate bill was ordered to be read a third time, was read the third time, and passed, and a motion to reconsider was laid on the table.

GENERAL LEAVE

Mr. HANSEN. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent that all Members may have 5 legislative days in which to revise and extend their remarks and include extraneous material on the bills just passed.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from Utah?

There was no objection.

ANNOUNCEMENT BY THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Pursuant to the provisions of clause 5 of rule I, the Chair announces that he will postpone further proceedings today on each motion to suspend the rules on which a recorded vote or the yeas and nays are ordered, or on which the vote is objected to under clause 4 of rule XV.

Such rollcall votes, if postponed, will be taken Monday, October 12, 1998.

CONDEMNING THE TERROR, VENGEANCE, AND HUMAN RIGHTS ABUSES AGAINST SIERRA LEONE

Mr. GILMAN. Mr. Speaker, I move to suspend the rules and agree to the resolution (H.Res. 559) condemning the terror, vengeance, and human rights abuses against the civilian population of Sierra Leone, as amended.

The Clerk read as follows:

H. RES. 559

Whereas the ousted Armed Forces Revolutionary Council (AFRC) military junta and the rebel fighters of the Revolutionary United Front (RUF) have mounted a campaign of terror, vengeance, and human rights abuses on the civilian population of Sierra Leone;

Whereas the AFRC/RUF violence against civilians continues with at least 1,200 persons having hands or feet amputated by rebels (and the International Committee of the Red Cross (ICRC) estimates that every victim who makes it to medical help is only 1 of 4 who have been mutilated);

Whereas the AFRC/RUF continues to abduct children and forcibly train them as combatants, in numbers estimated by UNICEF to exceed 3,000 since March 1998;

Whereas the humanitarian consequences of this campaign have been the flight of more than 250,000 refugees to Guinea and Liberia in the last 6 months and the increase of internally displaced Sierra Leoneans to over 250,000 in camps and towns in the north and east;

Whereas the governments of Guinea and Liberia are having great difficulty caring for the huge number of refugees, now totaling 600,000 in Guinea and Liberia, and emergency appeals have been issued by the United Nations High Commission for Refugees (UNHCR) for $7,300,000 for emergency food, shelter, sanitation, medical, educational, psychological, and social services;

Whereas starvation and hunger-related deaths have begun in the north with more than 500 people dying since August 1, 1998, a situation that will only get worse in the next months;

Whereas the humanitarian community is unable, because of continuing security concerns, to deliver food and medicine to the vulnerable groups within the north and east of Sierra Leone;

Whereas the Economic Community of West African States (ECOWAS) and its military peacekeeping arm called ECOMOG are doing their best, but require additional logistic support to either bring this AFRC/RUF rebel war to a conclusion or force a negotiated settlement;

Whereas arms and weapons continue to be supplied to the AFRC/RUF in direct violation of a United Nations arms embargo;

Whereas United Nations Under Secretary for Humanitarian Affairs and Emergency Relief Coordinator Sergio Vieira de Melo, Amnesty International, Human Rights Watch, and Refugees International, following May through June 1998 visits to Sierra Leone, have condemned, in the strongest terms, the terrible human rights violations done by the AFRC/RUF rebels to civilians; and

Whereas the Special Representative of the United Nations Secretary General for Children and Armed Conflict, Olara Otunnu, following a May 1998 visit to Sierra Leone, called upon the United Nations to make Sierra Leone one of the pilot projects in the rehabilitation of child combatants: Now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That the House of Representatives—

(1) urges the President and the Secretary of State to give high priority to solving the conflict in Sierra Leone and to bring stability to West Africa in general;

(2) urges the State Department to give the needed logistical support to ECOMOG and the Government of Sierra Leone to bring this conflict to a rapid conclusion;

(3) condemns the use of children as combatants in the conflict in Sierra Leone;

(4) urges the establishment of a secure humanitarian corridor to strategic areas in the north and east of Sierra Leone for the safe delivery of food and medicines by the Government of Sierra Leone and humanitarian agencies already in the country mandated to deliver this aid;

(5) urges the President and the Secretary of State to strictly enforce the United Nations arms embargo on the Armed Forces

Revolutionary Council and Revolutionary United Front (AFRC/RUF) rebel forces;

(6) urges the President and the Secretary of State to work with the Economic Community of West African States (ECOWAS) nations to ensure there are sufficient African forces and arms provided to its military peacekeeping arm ECOMOG;

(7) urges the President and the Secretary of State to support the United Nations High Commission for Refugees (UNHCR) appeal for aid to the Sierra Leonean refugees in Guinea, Liberia, and other countries;

(8) urges the President and the State Department to support the United Nations agencies and nongovernmental organizations working in Sierra Leone to bring humanitarian relief and peace to the country;

(9) urges the President and the State Department to support the Government of Sierra Leone in its demobilization, disarmament, and reconstruction plan for the country as peace becomes a reality; and

(10) encourages and supports, Olara Otunnu, United Nations Special Representative of the Secretary General for Children and Armed Conflict, to continue in his efforts to work in Sierra Leone in the establishment of programs designed to rehabilitate child combatants.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Pursuant to the rule, the gentleman from New York (Mr. GILMAN) and the gentleman from Tennessee (Mr. CLEMENT) each will control 20 minutes.

The Chair recognizes the gentleman from New York (Mr. GILMAN).

GENERAL LEAVE

Mr. GILMAN. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent that all Members may have 5 legislative days in which to revise and extend their remarks on this measure.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from New York?

There was no objection.

Mr. GILMAN. Mr. Speaker, I yield myself such time as I may consume.

(Mr. GILMAN asked and was given permission to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. GILMAN. Mr. Speaker, I am pleased to support this resolution offered by the gentleman from Michigan (Mr. EHLERS) and cosponsored by the distinguished chairman of our Subcommittee on Africa, the gentleman from California (Mr. ROYCE).

Mr. Speaker, the situation in Sierra Leone is horrifying. Rebel soldiers are terrorizing the civilian population, killing and maiming innocent people, including women and children. The instability in Sierra Leone has overflowed its borders and is impacting on neighboring Liberia and Guinea. Hundreds of thousands of people have been displaced from their homes and are foraging for sustenance or relying on the generosity of the international community.

Mr. Speaker, there is a peacekeeping force in Sierra Leone known as the Economic Community of West African States Monitoring Group, ECOMOG, made up of soldiers from other African nations. In many cases ECOMOG is all that stands between innocent civilians and ethnic atrocities. This resolution will put the Congress on record supporting ECOMOG and other positive institutions in Sierra Leone. Accordingly, I urge my colleagues to support this measure.

Mr. Speaker, I reserve the balance of my time.

Mr. CLEMENT. Mr. Speaker, I yield myself such time as I may consume. I support this resolution. The United States must take steps to stop the killing, human rights abuses and humanitarian disaster that is taking place in Sierra Leone. This resolution puts the House on record behind a series of actions that would help. It sends an important message to all parties to the conflict as well as to our administration. I urge my colleagues to support the resolution.

Mr. Speaker, I reserve the balance of my time.

Mr. GILMAN. Mr. Speaker, I thank the gentleman from Tennessee for his supporting remarks.

Mr. Speaker, I yield such time as he may consume to the gentleman from Michigan (Mr. EHLERS), the author of this resolution.

Mr. EHLERS. Mr. Speaker, I thank the chairman for his support of the bill and thank him also for bringing the bill to the floor.

While our Nation and many nations are very concerned about bloodshed and potential warfare in the Balkans, we tend too often to ignore the problems in Africa, a continent that is in danger of drowning in an ocean of blood if further action is not taken.

A good example of that is the nation of Sierra Leone, a peace-loving nation, which unfortunately on May 27, 1997 suffered a coup in which the Armed Forces Revolutionary Council seized power from Sierra Leone's democratically elected government. It, together with another armed group, the Revolutionary United Front, began a nine-month regime characterized by abuse of power and misgovernment.

The neighboring nation of Sierra Leone decided to take action to end the bloodbath and to restore the democratically elected government. This organization, the Economic Community of West African States, better known as ECOWAS, and its military peacekeeping arm, called ECOMOG, led a West African peacekeeping force in February 1998. This force sought to restore the democratically elected government of Sierra Leone.

Since the civilian government was restored successfully, the deposed military junta has engaged in a campaign of terror against the government, the civilian population and ECOMOG. They have fled into the bush, particularly in the eastern part of the country, and continue their battle of terror from that region.

As a result of this conflict, thousands of civilians have become victims of gross violations of human rights, mostly at the hands of the rebels, the AFRC/RUF. Abuses include physical mutilation, torture, murder. Hundreds of men, women and children have been abducted, raped, sold into forced labor. Worst of all, young children are being inducted into combat and taught to kill before they are old enough to recognize what they are doing.

Approximately one-quarter million refugees from Sierra Leone have fled into neighboring Guinea and Liberia. The location of the refugee camps does not allow for provision of adequate relief, and it is essential that the ECOMOG forces be able to conquer the rebel forces, which unfortunately are receiving arms from some unknown sources.

There is poor security, a lack of resources and minimal access to these camps, resulting in hundreds of deaths simply because the aid forces are not able to reach those needing relief. Arms and weapons continue to be supplied to the rebels in direct violation of the United Nations arms embargo. The international community has simply failed to respond vigorously and adequately to this growing humanitarian crisis within and outside of Sierra Leone.

Therefore, this resolution urges in the strongest terms that the President and Secretary of State of our Nation give high priority to solving the conflict in Sierra Leone and to bring stability to West Africa in general. It also urges the State Department to give logistical support to ECOMOG and to the government of Sierra Leone. It also condemns the use of children as combatants, and urges the establishment of a secure humanitarian corridor for the safe delivery of food and medicine to all those who are suffering.

Furthermore, the resolution urges the President and Secretary of State to strictly enforce the United Nations armed embargo on rebel forces. It also urges the President and Secretary of State to work with West African states nations to ensure that there are sufficient African forces and arms provided for peacekeeping.

It is a very serious situation and has resulted in considerable human suffering, and I urge that this resolution be adopted, and once again I thank the gentleman for taking this bill up and yielding this time to me.

Mr. CLEMENT. Mr. Speaker, I have no further requests for time, and I yield back the balance of my time.

Mr. GILMAN. Mr. Speaker, I yield myself such time as I may consume.

Mr. Speaker, I want to commend the gentleman from Michigan (Mr. EHLERS), who is not a member of our committee, for bringing this critical situation to the attention of the floor at this time, and we commend him.

Mr. Speaker, I have no further requests for time, and I yield back the balance of my time.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The question is on the motion offered by the gentleman from New York (Mr. GILMAN) that the House suspend the rules and agree to the resolution H. Res. 559, as amended.

The question was taken; and (two-thirds having voted in favor thereof) the rules were suspended and the resolution, as amended, was agreed to.

A motion to reconsider was laid on the table.

INTERNATIONAL RELIGIOUS FREEDOM ACT OF 1998

Mr. GILMAN. Mr. Speaker, I move to suspend the rules and take from the speaker's table the bill (H.R. 2431) to establish an Office of Religious Persecution Monitoring, to provide for the imposition of sanctions against countries engaged in a pattern of religious persecution, and for other purposes, with Senate amendments thereto, and concur in the Senate amendments.

The Clerk read the title of the bill.
